TAX AMNESTY

ADVISORY FOR TAX PROFESSIONALS
FEBRUARY 8, 2018

One week left until amnesty deadline

All amnesty-related filings and payments are due on February 15, 2018

PROVIDENCE, R.I. – The deadline for Rhode Island’s state tax amnesty program is one week away. Filings and payments are due on or before February 15, 2018.

“That means taxpayers have only one week remaining to take advantage of the amnesty program’s benefits,” said Rhode Island Tax Administrator Neena S. Savage, who oversees the Division of Taxation.

“If you pay what you owe in back taxes, we will eliminate all penalties and erase 25 percent of the interest you owe,” she said. “So now is the time to step forward, clean your slate, and get a fresh start,” she added.

For the first two full months of amnesty, through January 31, 2018, the amnesty grand total – in other words, the total amount of tax and reduced interest submitted with amnesty returns – is more than $9.1 million.
