ADVISORY FOR TAX PROFESSIONALS
APRIL 10, 2018

Deadline a week from today for corporate estimated tax payments Legislation enacted last year harmonizes federal and Rhode Island deadlines

PROVIDENCE, R.I. – The Rhode Island Division of Taxation reminds tax professionals and taxpayers that corporations have a new deadline and formula for making their estimated tax payments.

Under the old law, two payments of corporate estimated tax were due: The first payment, for 40 percent of the total, was due on the 15th day of the third month of the tax year. The second payment, for 60 percent of the total, was due on the 15th day of the sixth month of the tax year.

- Thus, for a calendar-year C corporation under the old law, the first payment was due March 15, and the second payment was due June 15.

Under the new law, which applies for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017, a corporation will make four payments of Rhode Island estimated tax, in equal installments of 25 percent apiece: The first payment will be due on the 15th day of the fourth month of the tax year, the second payment on the 15th day of the sixth month of the tax year, the third payment on the 15th day of the ninth month of the tax year, and the fourth payment on the 15th day of the twelfth month of the tax year.

- Thus, for a calendar-year C corporation in 2018, the first payment is due one week from today – on April 17, 2018. The second payment will be due on June 15, the third on September 17, and the fourth on December 17.¹

Corporate estimated tax – due dates and amounts for 2018
OLD SYSTEM (Payment in two unequal installments)			NEW SYSTEM (Payment in four equal installments)
	DUE DATE	AMOUNT		DUE DATE	AMOUNT
1 st payment	March 15	40%	1 st payment	April 17	25%
2 nd payment	June 15	60%	2 nd payment	June 15	25%
			3 rd payment	Sept. 17	25%
			4 th payment	Dec. 17	25%

For illustration purposes, table assumes filer is calendar-year C corporation. New system applies for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017. Thus, first installment for calendar-year filer is due on or before April 17, 2018. Dates in table take into account weekends and holidays for 2018 for calendar-year filer.

¹ Deadlines listed take into account weekends and holidays for calendar-year filers for 2018.

The new system is the result of a proposal by Rhode Island Governor Gina M. Raimondo that was approved last year by the Rhode Island General Assembly and signed into law on August 3, 2017.

Under the new law, corporations will now make their Rhode Island estimated tax payments in accordance with federal statute and regulations – making the system more convenient for businesses and their tax advisors.

The following table shows which filers are affected.

New corporate estimated tax system – who is affected
For every corporation having a taxable year after December 31, 2017, payment of estimated tax shall be made in four installments of 25 percent each. This requirement shall apply to the following:
TAX/ENTITY	NORMALLY FILES ANNUAL RETURN ON:	SUBJECT TO TAX UNDER RHODE ISLAND GENERAL LAWS:
Business corporation tax <small>(also known as corporate income tax)</small>	Form RI-1120C	Chapter 44-11
Political organization tax	Form RI-1120POL	Chapter 44-11.1
Public service corporation tax <small>(also known as public service gross earnings tax)</small>	Form T-72	Chapter 44-13
