INSTRUCTIONS

(Please read these instructions carefully before completing this return)

Line 1: Enter the simple, daily average of deposits for this Credit Union during the period from the first business day of January through the last business day of December for the reporting period.

Line 2A: Enter the simple, daily average book value of investments in exempt obligations. This calculation should reflect amortization and accretion; should reflect only such investments as are actually owned by this Credit Union; and should when necessary, be easily traceable to this Credit Union's statement of financial condition.

Line 2B: Enter the simple, daily average book value of the assets of this Credit Union. This calculation should reflect such normal valuation accounts as are reflected on the Credit Union's statement of condition.

Line 7: A building and loan association or savings and loan association may claim a credit for Rhode Island corporate franchise taxes (Chapter 44-12, R.I.G.L.) paid by it in this year.

Lines 8 thru 10: No entry should appear on these lines if this form is being completed for the January 15th reporting requirement.

FILING DATES:

Credit Union's are required to report using this form on or before January 15th of each year. No tax payment is required with the report. Credit Unions are required to file a return using this form and pay the tax calculated thereon on or before June 15th of each year. Checks should be made payable to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation. Completed reports, returns and remittances should be mailed promptly to:
