Qualifying materialmen may postpone remitting the sales tax until they receive payment ("pay when paid") on qualifying sales. A qualifying sale is a sale of building materials with respect to the materials to a contractor, as defined in Regulation SU 02-145 (Materialmen - "PayWhen Paid Remittance Method") for the construction or improvement of real property, provided the sale is made on credit granted by the materialman. However, in all cases, the tax must be remitted within one year of the date of sale. For more information and for special record-keeping requirements, see Regulation SU 02-145.

To qualify, a materialman must meet all three of the eligibility requirements listed below and must submit this application to the Division of Taxation by February 1, 2008. The deadline to submit this application is February 1 of each year. If the application is approved, the Division of Taxation will issue a permit with reporting instructions for the sales tax collected under the "pay when paid" method.

Eligibility Requirements

This application will not be processed unless you initial that you meet all three (3) of the eligibility requirements. I certify that for six (6) consecutive months, within the most recent twelve (12) month period, that:

Please initial:

1). I was primarily engaged in selling lumber and building materials to contractors, subcontractors, or repairman;
2). At least fifty percent (50%) of my total sales were comprised of lumber and building materials to contractors for the construction or improvement of real property; and
3). I am authorized under Chapter 28 of Title 34 of the RI General Laws to file a mechanic's lien on the real property, or improvement to real property, in which building materials have been incorporated.

Certification

As an authorized representative of the retailer named above, I declare under the penalty of false statement that I have examined this application and that to the best of my knowledge and belief it is true, complete, and correct.
