2009 FORM RI-1065 PARTNERSHIP INCOME INFORMATION RETURN

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

WHO MUST FILE

Every partnership having any income derived from sources in Rhode Island must file a RI-1065 return for the taxable year. No tax is imposed on a partnership, but each partner is required to include in his or her Rhode Island individual income tax return his or her distributive share of the partnership net income for the partnership taxable year. The entire distributive share of the partnership net income is taxed to the partner whether or not such income is actually distributed.

NOTE: A Limited Liability Company (LLC) must file Form RI-1120S, not Form RI-1065.

NONRESIDENT PARTNERS

Partnerships that have nonresident partners must also file Form RI-1096PT or Form RI-1040C.

If a Form RI-1096PT is filed, the entity will pay any withholding due for the partners and shall pass the partners' shares of income and withholding through to each partner.

If a Form RI-1040C is filed, the entity shall file and pay any tax due on the partnership's income on the partners' behalf, in lieu of the partners filing an individual Rhode Island income tax return.

PERIOD COVERED BY THE RETURN

The partnership taxable year shall be the same as the federal taxable year.

WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE

The return should be filed on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the partnership's taxable year.

Mail your return to the:

Rhode Island Division of Taxation
One Capitol Hill

WHOLE DOLLAR AMOUNTS

The money items may be shown as whole dollar amounts. Any amount under 50 cents may be eliminated and any amounts 50 cents through 99 cents increased to the next highest dollar.

REPORT OF CHANGE IN FEDERAL TAXABLE INCOME

If the amount of the federal income is changed or corrected by the federal government, the partnership must report to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation such change or correction within 90 days after the final determination is made. Any partnership filing an amended income tax return must also file, within 90 days thereafter, an amended Rhode Island return.
