IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING MOTOR FUEL TAX

The 2009 session of the Rhode Island General Assembly enacted into law legislation (House Bill 5983 Substitute A as amended, Article 16) increasing the motor fuel tax rate from 30 cents to 32 cents per gallon for all taxable motor fuels sold or used by distributors and special distributors. This increase would be effective at 12:01am on July 1, 2009.

Retailers or any other taxpayer should not charge a greater tax rate than the amount of tax that was paid on their stock when purchased prior to the change in the tax rate. Stock purchased at the previous rate of 30 cents per gallon is subject to the same tax rate at the point of sale.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, please call Marc R. Levasseur in the Excise Tax section at (401) 574-8811.
